

FROM LA TUNA WITH LOVE

3 May, 2008

Good morning again my loving family and friends.

Well! the news came yesterday; the US Supreme Court has denied my motion for rehearing without comment as of April 14. The Notice was sent to my friend Bill in Oklahoma rather than me; so the courts remain closed to all of the people who are not members of the house of lords given the title of nobility of esquire or special privelege as lawyers.

For those unaware Bill and LS had filed for certiorary while I was still in transit after resentencing in December; and then the court never responded to me at this address; so my only notice had to take a detour through Edmond. Just a little detail that could kill due process if you are on a short time schedule.

Please do not assume that this latest opportunity forms some great emotional or fear problem for me... Just remember I originally said I expected this case to have to go through all the possible steps of process and procedure.. NOW BEGINS THE POST CONVICTION RELIEF PORTION FOR HABEAS CORPUS UNDER RULE AND SECTION 2255 which will likely take another year if it is necessary to go all the way back to the Supreme Court... So: there is a new set of rules and procedures for me to learn.

All of those who believe they have this already figured out are welcome to send me your best; but not to assume or expect that I will follow your exact process, unless of course you have already been freed by Judge White, 10th Ckt. or the Supremes on this kid of charge.

I remain certain that justice must surely be done in America, and fully willing to do all that God may choose in time and procedures seeking that truth and justice on which this Nation was founded by Divine Providence.

I will not be, any time soon, visiting you or interfering in your loves.

For some of you this menas that there is more you have to do without my help; and for others I am sure it is sweet relief to know that I will remain in this isolation of knowledge and information for yet a while. Ther is little doubt that some of my servants at IRS are greatly heartened by this news, for more will shrink in fear and beg the yoke of the strange gods and demagogues called government.

Please remember, when you choose to be servant to the government created to serve your needs to do all your service as unto the Lord.

My conscience remains clear; and my faith unshaken. I know that God has great and wonderful purpose for me here or wherever I am in His great creation called earth.

I have no need of the fame attached to being the one who overcomes this beast of a system in Mystery Babylon. God knows just exactly which audience I am chosen for ministry of his good news of Kingdom Righteousness; and only He has control of that timing. No matter what foolish men think or plot; God's purpose in this Nation and Earth will be fulfilled, whether we do it joyously, or with great pain. God would of course prefer that we would choose the easy and comfortable way of His Peace in Jesus Christ by His YOKE; but will bring us to the correct conclusion through great and severe chastisement, even plagues if that is our choice.

The current fear and trepation in the financial markets and economy is just one tiny symptom of our gross love of money and idolatry in our toys for the last couple of generations, or longer. I have traced those generational time lines and curses before that we enjoy because we choose wrongly and pray amiss as James wrote.

Yes; Of Course! I would far rather prefer to be home next week to wish my daughters a HAPPY MOTHERS" DAY; but it is not to be so; at least this year; and perhaps never. I am okay with that too, if that is how God's plan and purpose is to be worked out in and through me.

I have decided for the moment to endure and continue standing against the evil that I deal with in my new job. Inmates take very different attitudes, as do those in your neighborhood. I am amazed at how many claim christianity while being grossly still loyal and loving the ways of the world. While the Scripture, both as given by Jesus and Paul say we are to cease from our wicked ways in carrying out 2 Chronicles 7: 14 and 1 John goes on to say if we keep on sinning we are not truly children of God, and every reference I can find admonishes us to set a good and righteous example in our service and servitude, I resist and battle daily those who claim to be Christians but choose lies over truth and self over honorable service.

All of you prayer warriors are called to gather together in prayer on the battlefield and intercede in my behalf, boldly before the throne of God doing all to stand for truth and honor in this miserably corrupt place we call earth.

This afternoon I will meet our new Chaplain and see just what he is planning to help the spread of the word. Last August all the books and videos were stripped out of the Chapel that had a protestant doctrine or author. I have requested their return in writing, so this afternoon opportunity will strike.

It would seem that God is not ready for the healing of our land. I expect we as a Nation and People need a lot more humble, and a lot less toys that become our idols we worship so that we do not have time for God, King Jesus; or OUR FATHERS' BUSINESS in the earth. HIS business is all about seeing that "none shall perish but that all will turn to righteousness". I am certain he would like to see a few stand for truth no matter what the price; and I expect at some point that will mean shaking the dust off my feet with certain individuals who have this perverted idea of Christian behavior that approves lying, stealing, and forging records in the cause of laziness. I observe, and challenge, those who will lie about doing a job, or rush through the job helter skelter, then sit and complain how bored they are with not enough work to occupy the day. I fight to actually do the job correctly as we should in honorable service to the LORD; and likely at some time in the near future will either overcome and do the job correctly to honor God; or shake the dust off my feet and move on to those whose hearts and doctrines of deceit are not so hardened and engrained.

This tiny little community of 260 inmates and 18 staff that I deal with on a daily basis is but a tiny sample of what we all deal with in family, community, church, and Nation or government at all levels. When the Government has such control of the Churches' love of money, it also has such control of their doctrine, whether they will admit it or not. Man, through governments has taken on the role of creator and demagogue over most of our business lives, finances, and mind control through fear of loss. I can tell you that there is a place and time when loss is a blessing.

In 1985 I had lost all those things of my love of money that I had such pride in making me great. The state ordained marriage had ended a few years before, my Corporation created and controlled by state government was gone; my pride in being the best in that profession was slammed and slandered in rumor and innuendo; the trappings of wealth were likewise gone; and on Sept. 2 God decided it was His turn to be important in my life. From that day on I have been a new and different man. All but a few of those I had called friend in that former life found reasons not to hang around the Christian jc. And with little doubt there will be those in this time that will choose not to be associated with the radical uncompromising Christian jc. And while I will miss some of you and wonder what I could have done to better serve the LORD in your life, we will both go on.

I had to come to prison to understand or actually observe real prejudice and racism at its finest. My observation is that those who complain the most of some sort of discrimination are the ones actually doing the discrimination. I never actually knew a real racist before. Yes I had encountered a few who talked a good game; but these are truly acting it out every day. The only ones who isolate based on race, in work, entertainment, and even church turn out to be african or claim to be so. The example they set in selfishness and greed is beyond what I had ever encountered, and goes along with the reality that one given privilege and special treatment long enough will decide that he is entitled to that same kind of special treatment. In most of my life it had been judaism that thought themselves privileged and entitled to special consideration based on one man's acts of more than 3 generations ago; and the few here sure get those privileges of special treatment; the later arrivals in the past generation is the muslims, or Nation of Islam who extort special considerations but the black community here is racist enough to believe that their phony brand of Christianity means even God owes them what they refuse to earn through humbling themselves or anything close to obedience; and of the whole lot I know of only one who does anything to control the words of his mouth.

During my first year here I observed that there was a group of young mexicans who have never worked and never will as long as there is a crime that can yield them the money to support their lusts and desires. And that element is copied in white and black. From what I see here the ones who have abandoned their calling and duty as men and fathers owe to the government to support are just like the Christians who have adopted the doctrine that one act of claiming Jesus with no change in life style or language means God owes them an eternal Kingdom and Life of pleasure and glory.

My personal observation is that the corruption of the churches came from my generation, the children of the depression generation, and WW II soldiers, or those who avoided it and went through lack and rationing. We were taught greed at the highest level and with all the welfare that proceeded us the dependency upon government and not God. The people love their welfare state in the benefits of mammon so much that that became doctrine of Churches. You don't have to do a thing to have eternal reward, just claim it and demand God serve your lusts and desires.

YES! I was myself guilty of a lot of these errors; and seeing them highlighted may be wone of my needs here.

It is my hope and fervent prayer that this Nation and People will be brought back to our humble service to divine providence. And if my telling you of these little experiences as I do all to stand and put on His great Armor daily to resist evil such that it must flee is a blessing and benefit; PLEASE BE SURE TO GIVE GOD ALL THE GLORY.

We were created and established to be a praise and a pleasure to God, not an obligation to keep on forgiving us hundreds of times because we absolutely refuse to surrender our lusts and greed to Him in Seeking His face and eternal rule over our lives and all that is in them.

We will whine and beg at his feet for him to let us have our lusts, idols and toys;;; when what he wants us to do is seek his face as honorable righteous friends.

Remember Convoy.. those 18 long haired friends of Jesus in the purple micro bus. That is what he wants; friends... not beggars who can not even look Him in the face. FACE TIME is what all friends want..

More than I want to look in your face and hug your body; I want to look in Jesus face and be His friend; for at most you are temporary in this earth but He is forever, and all righteous.

Love ya lots
